Insurance for all Artwork on Exhibition: Unless the lender expressly elects to maintain their own insurance coverage, the AAM will insure this loan of artwork under its finer arts policy for the documented "artist value" under "Insurance Valuation" against all risks of physical loss or damage from any external cause on location during the period of the loan. There is a $500.00 deductible on a per occurrence basis that will not be assumed by the Museum for the price of a piece on loan. The maximum insurance value that will be covered is $2000. If the lender chooses to maintain their own insurance, the AAM must be supplied with a certificate of insurance naming the AAM as an additional assured or waiving subrogation against the AAM. If the lender shall fail to supply the AAM with such a certificate, this loan agreement shall constitute a release of the AAM from any liability in connection with the artwork on loan.)
